Dedication

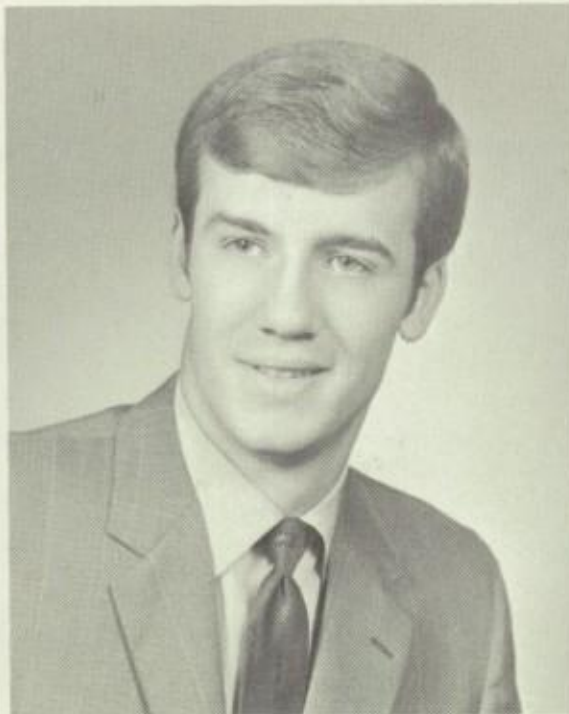

This year's Seniors chose to dedicate the 1970 Prairie City Annual to Mr. Larry Beard. Not only is he an asset to the school as Prairie City's guidance counselor, he is a friend and helper to the Class of '70.' As a sponsor he gave of himself in any way he could to help our class. As a token of appreciation, we want to extend to him the greatest honor we can; so to you, Mr. Beard, the "Book of 70" to remember us by always, as we will remember you.

ACTIVITIES

Classes and organizations present their skits to the team on skit night. Seniors win first place, junior class wins second, and third place goes to the freshmen. To sum up an exciting evening the football team is presented, the queen is crowned, and a bonfire pep meeting is held.

Junior boys present "Then Came Larry."

A monkey helps freshman make'm monkey's uncles.

This is a preview of tomorrow's game?

School colors are modeled in FHA skit.

The team takes a "relaxing" ride before their game.

Senior float, "Daniel Boone," takes second place.

"The Guiding Light" is the theme of junior float.

"Wagon Train" gives the sophomores third place.

Freshmen win first with "Land of the Giants."

"Hawaii Five-O" is homecoming contribution from junior high.

FHA girls present "Concentration" serving as only organization float.

QUEEN JOANN 1969

Homecoming

I have many fond memories of my high school days at P.C., but the most cherished memory is that of being chosen your 1969 Homecoming Queen.

I'll always remember the honor of being chosen from the entire student body to reign over the Homecoming activities.

I want to take this opportunity, to thank everyone for making this honor possible.

Joann

Sherry Osborn, Homecoming Queen 1968, crowns Joann Renaud as 1969's queen.

The Queen and her court reign over the homecoming activities from their platform on the side lines.

At half-time, Joann is escorted off the platform by John Hawkins.

John helps Joann from her car after her half-time ride.

Jane is escorted back to the platform by Lynn Elrod.

Bob Heemsbergen serves as Lorraine's escort.

Cardinal Relays

I considered it a great honor to be Prairie City's Cardinal Relays Candidate for Cardinal Relays Queen.

I want to thank the track team who make this honor possible, for it was a thrilling experience that I Will always cherish.

"I'm sorry Teddy. It's my fault Peggy left you, so I'll be Mrs. Watson for your business dinner."

"Hello there! Bart sent me over to be your wife for the evenin' "

"I tell you I'M Mrs. Watson . . . or I was . . . and I'm NOT leaving until I talk to Teddy."

"You're a butler! And I said I'd marry you 'cause I thought you were the rich guy comin' to dinner."

"Mr. Andrews, I think Teddy has divorced me and married my best friend, Lou Mathews."

"A girl can always change her mind."

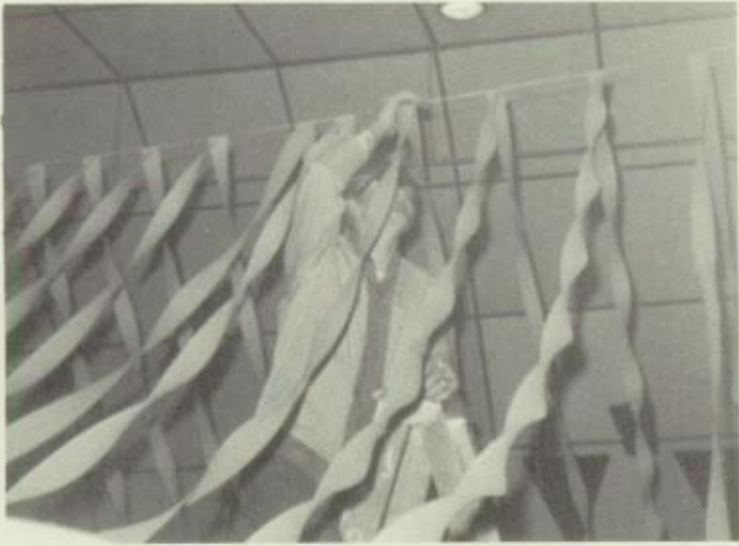

"Oh you wonderful man! I know you'll make Lou very happy."

And they all lived happy ever after.

The guidance counselor at Prairie City this year is Mr. Larry Beard. He also is a pompom girls sponsor, National Honor Society sponsor, and a senior sponsor.

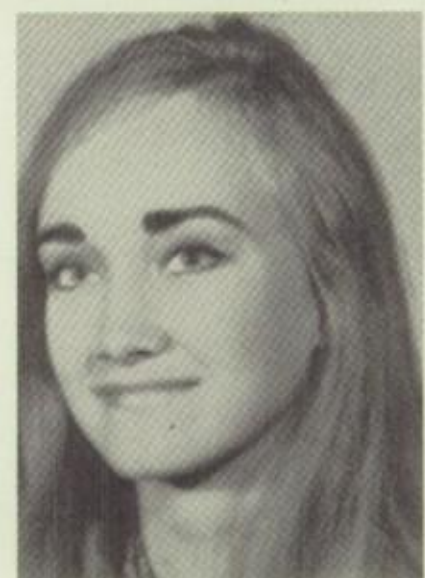

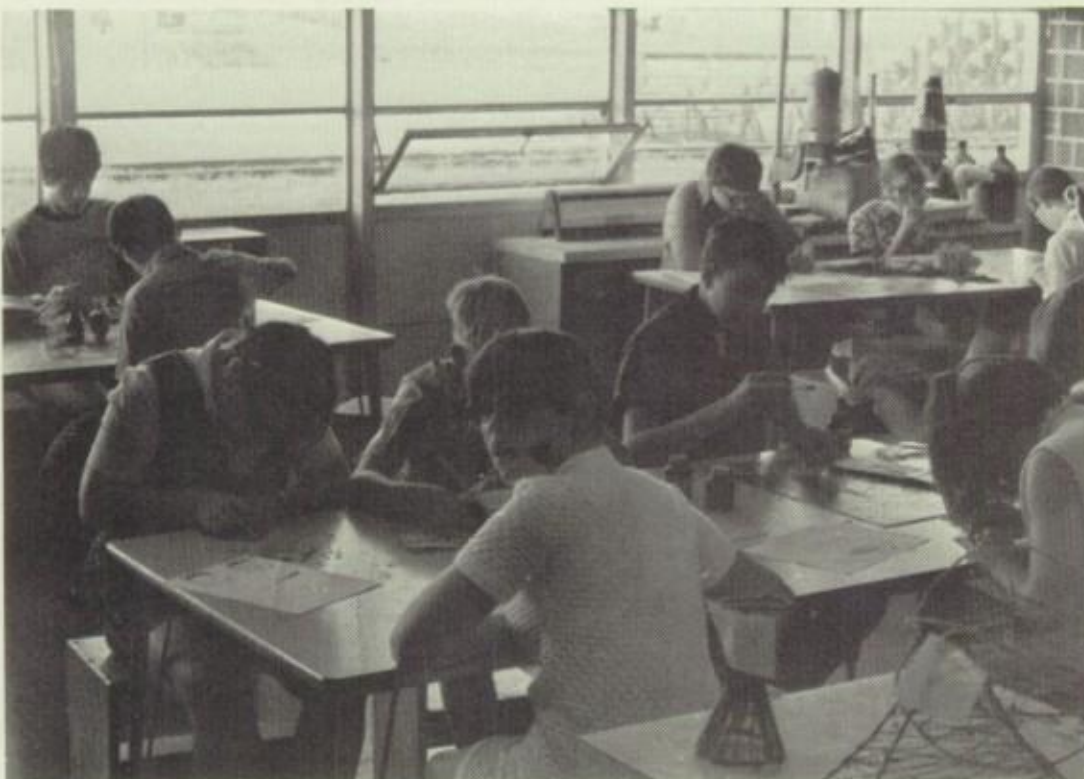

Mr. Larry Rosel is the instructor of high school physical education. He coaches junior high girls' basketball, high school girls' track and softball, and is the assistant coach for high school girls' basketball. He is also a junior sponsor.

Mrs. Mary Nell Caldwell instructs home economic classes, is a junior sponsor, and F.H.A. sponsor.

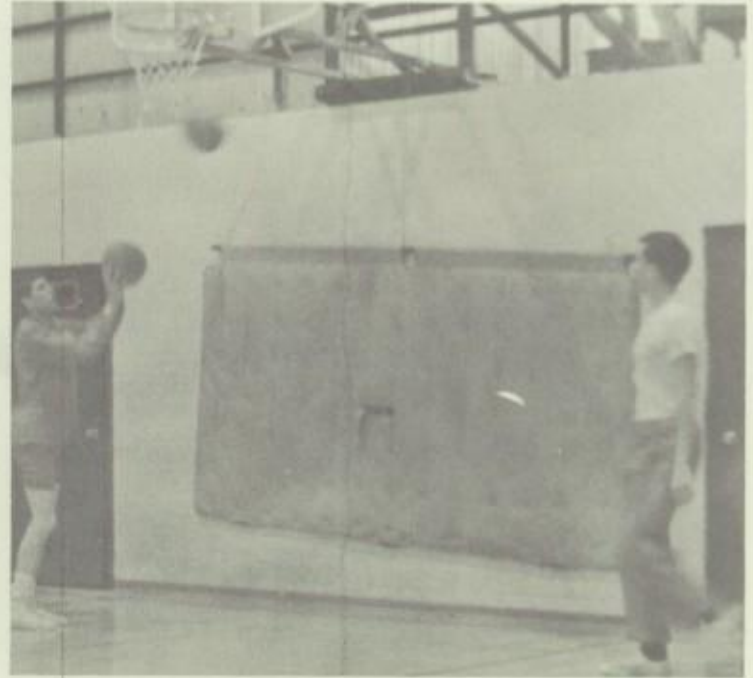

Industrial art classes are being taught by Mr. Walter Fortney. He also served as a senior class sponsor.

Miss Barbara Woods instructs art classes of elementary, junior high, and senior high levels.

Mr. Robert Buyert not only teaches math classes but also coaches junior high track teams, high school baseball, and high school boys basketball with Mr. Howard Pothoven as his assistant coach. Mr. Pothoven teaches American government and bookkeeping.

For the last time at Prairie City, Mr. Granville Williams is teaching biology, chemistry, and physics. FTA, Science Club, and Camera Club are groups he sponsors.

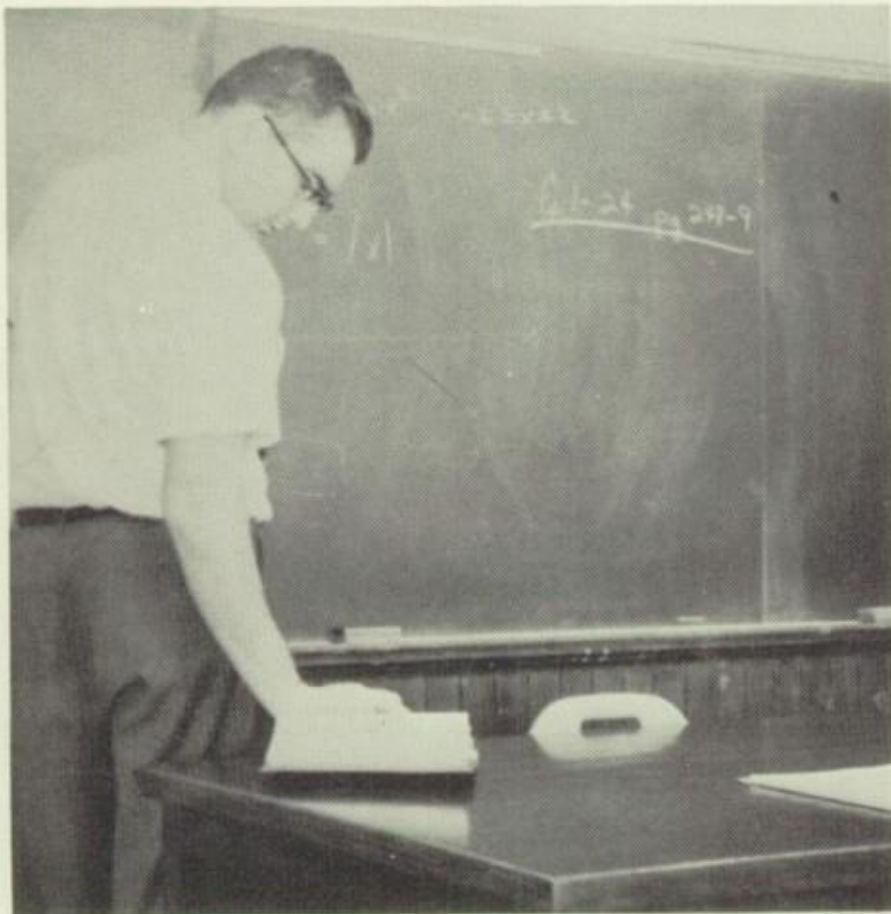

Miss Genevieve Fowler is the instructor for junior high and high school typing, shorthand, and office practice. Office practice is responsible for school programs.

For the first time sociology is offered at Prairie City and is taught by Mr. Fred Kutzli. He is also helping as librarian.

Another Prairie City math teacher is Mr. Joseph Koppenhaver.

High school language arts is taught by Mrs. Paula Kent. One class project is anthologies done by the sophomores. She sponsors both annual and newspaper staff, and is a junior class sponsor.

Freshman English and Spanish classes are under the instruction of Miss Julia Stacey.

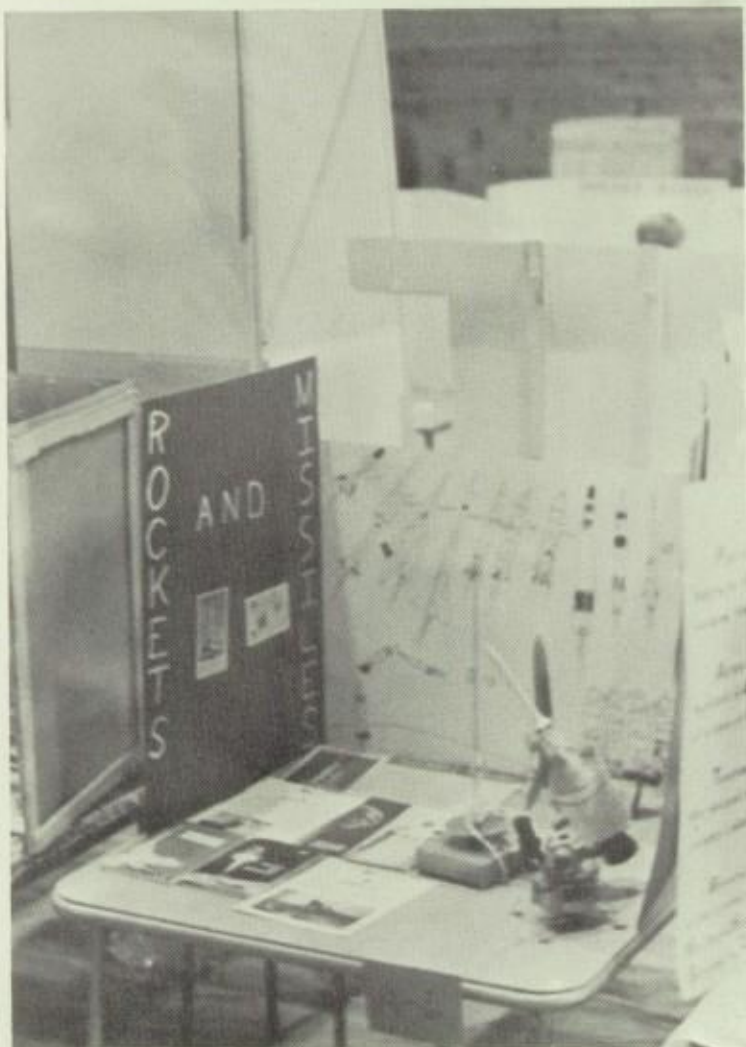

Directing instrumental music is Mr. Jack Yungclas.

Mr. Mahlon Smith is director of vocal music. In addition to several concerts his pupils presented the musical, "Oklahoma".

His first year here at Prairie City, Mr. Norman Appell teaches high school social studies and coaches high school football, and high school boys' track. He is also a sophomore sponsor.
